FOREWORD

Nelson County High School, long a dream in the minds and hearts of the people of this county, is today a reality with a standard for excellence. What is the intangible thing that has brought into being, this and every other institution that has for its goal, the advancement of civilization and the betterment of human society? The answer is love.

God first loved man and endowed him with the capacity for self-improvement. This quality of his being finds expression in many forms and is demonstrated in many ways. The player on the football field, the musician at the piano, the pupil poring over his lesson, the teacher behind his desk - all are responding to an inner urge for a higher and better way of life. It is this love for advancement, without which man would not aspire nor progress, that is the theme of our yearbook.

DEDICATION

To Our Faculty - because they have given of themselves as well as of their time and talents to our well-being, the staff of Thos. Nelson Jr. dedicates with esteem and affection the 1960 yearbook.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. J. B. M. Carter
Superintendent

Nelson County is privileged in having such a capable leader as Superintendent of Schools, Mr. J. B. M. Carter. Although an extremely busy person as head of the Nelson County Educational system, Mr. Carter finds time to give special attention to each of his schools.

Mr. Carter came to us from Fluvanna in the fall of 1954. Although he has been with us a relatively short time, he has gained the profound admiration of students and teachers throughout the county. At all times he is more than willing to cooperate with our administration in providing us with a thorough and excellent education. He is truly an educator with the interest of our youth foremost in his thoughts.

To him, we are deeply indebted!

Nelson County School Board in session.

Mrs. John Seaman, Mr. Orville Karicofe, Mr. J. B. M. Carter, Mr. Graham Heath, the late Mr. J. S. Carter.

Mrs. June Harris - Stenographer

Mrs. Reefa McGuffin, General Supervisor

Mrs. McGuffin is the one to whom students, teachers, and parents turn when in need of educational advice. She is always willing to take the time from her busy schedule to lend a helping hand.

Mr. Richard Moon, Visiting Teacher

Mr. Moon's infectious smile, his excellent persuasive power, coupled with his belief in the need for our youth to take advantage of a high school education, have been the cause of many a potential "drop-out" remaining in school.

Mr. W. L. Kirby, Jr., Principal

Five years ago William L. Kirby, Jr. assumed the arduous task of welding the students of four district high schools into a harmonious consolidated unit. In spite of the recognized difficulty of such an undertaking, he approached the task with confidence born of inner resources of wisdom and experience. In order to amalgamate the students from the several districts, he chose to include in every class students from each of these divisions - thus promoting a desirable oneness in each group. This sense of unity has done much to assure in the future a desirable spirit of co-operation among the citizens of the county.

The duties of the principal are not limited to administrative affairs only, and in many areas Mr. Kirby has exhibited outstanding capability showing an active interest and skill in coaching, in dramatic production, and in classroom teaching. No school activity fails to merit his interested support.

For these qualities of superior leadership and simple friendship, the staff of this yearbook take pride in paying tribute to our principal, our teacher, and our friend - Mr. William A. Kirby, Jr.

Mrs. Frances Ponton - indispensable to the smooth functioning of Nelson County High School.

Mr. Joe Michael - Assistant Principal

Friendly and efficient were the two words which described Mr. Michael in the 1958-1959 yearbook. We have no reason to change the verdict. In the office, teachers, students and other school personnel always find him available, courteous, and efficient. Students in the classroom find him friendly and always willing and ready to lend an understanding ear to their problems. As SCA advisor, Mr. Michael has added much to the smooth operation of Nelson County High School. In short, he is a nice person to have around.

Mr. James Brawley - Assistant Principal

Mr. Brawley has proved his worth in many ways at Nelson County High. He is a busy and efficient man both in the office and in the classroom. At all times he is ready to listen patiently and face problems with understanding whether these are administrative or classroom duties. We regard Mr. Brawley as a friend and helper. We hope he will continue in this capacity for many years.

This year's basketball season has ended with the Nelson County girls having the best record (13-1) ever realized at this high school or in any District IV high school in recent years. This was largely made possible through the untiring effort displayed by five seniors - Barbara Steele, Phyllis Oliver, Joan Gleason, Frances Vestal, Mary F. Thacker, and Peggy Clarkson, a junior, who filled the remaining position most ably. However, these six players were backed by a most competent second string. Scorewise, Barbara Steele averaged 19 points a game with Phyllis Oliver running a close second with 15 points.

Lovington, Virginia

Organized in Nelson County in 1937 by its owners, the farmers who pledged their membership to secure the blessings of modern, dependable electric service, and have extended this service to over 30,000 persons in Nelson, Amherst, Albemarle, Greene, Fluvanna, Goochland, Cumberland, Prince Edward, Appomattox, Campbell, Buckingham, Orange and Louisa counties.

The owners of this modern electric distribution system are its consumers, a portion of whose electric bill retires its debt. Before another twenty years expire, it will have retired its debt while continuing its vital service - still at the old 1937 rates.

We salute the 1959-60 class, many of whom will be listed among our owners. Don't let anyone talk you out of your heritage.
